Attention all seniors! Graduation cap and gown forms MUST be completed by the end of this week. Please see your Class Council members during any lunch wave to fill out your form.

More for Seniors! Applications for the Amiel P. Zak Scholarship are now available from Miss Harnett in Room 709. Any Suffield senior who is heading to a two or four year college is eligible. To be eligible you need to be a Suffield senior with an acceptable academic record and a history of community service and service to the greater Suffield community. Application deadline is February 16. Please see Miss Harnett if you would like an application or have any questions.

The Gaming Club will be meeting this week on Thursday January 11 from 2:15-3:30 in the Chorus room. All students are welcome to attend even if they did not previously sign up.

There will be a new cooking club session held after school in the foods room on Thursday, January 25th from 2:15-3:30. The recipe for this month is a vegetable sushi to represent Japan as we continue to travel to more locations around the globe. If you are interested in cooking and culture, please sign up quickly because there is a maximum of 12 people for each session, and sign up with Ms. Cossman or Millie Kochman with the fee of 4$. Permission and cash must be in by January 24th. Remember, the late bus will be available.

Attention GSA: We will be meeting Wednesday to discuss the True Colors conference in March and to pick up permission slips for the trip. See Ms. DeAngelis with any questions.

Attention Math team members, we will be having our next Math Team Meet today, Jan 10 at Glastonbury -- GO MATH TEAM

Today, Unified Basketball practice runs from 2:15-3pm in the gym.

Attention all Seniors! Please stop by and see Ms. Anderson in the Main Office to check to be sure your name is listed and spelled the way you would like to see it on your diploma for Graduation. Ms. Anderson will also stand at the senior sign-out table at the beginning of 7th period for the next few days. Thank you.

Time for Sports: The swim team was back in action last night against Granby. We came away with the win with another team effort. Matt Winter won his 2 events and accomplished career best times. Ezra Audet and Will Dubocq also had improved times. The team competes again Friday at Windsor Locks High versus NW Catholic.

Congratulations to the wrestling team for their 36-18 win over Stafford yesterday. They improve to 4-0 in the league
